

OACYC Award of Excellence

Eligibility and selection process

This award is open to certified or professional members in good standing in the OACYC only. Nominations will be reviewed by the OACYC Board of Directors and a recipient will be selected every two years. Both OACYC members and non-members can nominate a recipient.

Nomination Requirements

1. Full name of nominee
2. Employment status and name of current employer
3. Name of Nominator (self-nominations are accepted)
4. A brief description of why the nominee deserves this award
5. A list of accomplishments of the nominee
6. Examples of the nominee's active promotion of the spirit of child and youth care, commitment to professional development and ethical practice
7. A letter of reference from a colleague or employer. (Click here for a sample letter)

The recipient will be featured on the OACYC website and in our e-newsletter, The Chronicle. The recipient will receive a one-year complimentary membership in the OACYC.

Please submit your nomination to awards@oacyc.org with "OACYC Award of Excellence Nomination" in the subject line.
